A Message from the President

As the 2002-2003 year ends, this Yearbook of memories will be something to look back on for many years. Whether it brings back to mind classes, classmates who one day will be long forgotten, friends, games, theatrical events or campus activities, the photographic record will be something to cherish. To the class of 2003, congratulations on your achievement! Graduation is a time of joy, as you, your families, friends and supporters celebrate your success. May this yearbook help you to keep your College years in mind, and prompt your frequent return to Wesleyan.

Ian D.C. Newbould
President of the College

*The 2003 Dissenter

LAST WILL AND TESTAMENT

leave to all the students that will be graduating in the next 3 years the ability to strive for the end. Do not let anything bring you down, it seems like a long time but it will not be long and it will be worth it. Also, to all the graduating seniors of '03 GOOD LUCK in all your adventures. Hope you all are able to be happy in what you do. To all the teachers, faculty and staff at NCWC, thanks for all you have done for me in the last 4 years. PS - "See Ya"

Summer Lewis

I, Takela Swain, leave my leadership skills to my sisters in Sisters of Distinction (SOD), and my smile to my Cell Group (i.e. Khira, Gilda, Latisha, Temesha, Cecilia and Rasheeda). You all have made my stay here at NCWC a pleasant one and for that I am forever grateful. Continue to strive for the best in all that you do and never let anyone compromise your faith, as we climb this high ladder towards success.

leave my pool playin' skills to anyone who wants it. I was the best, ya know

Alfred Miller

I, Deanna M. Callender, here by leave my player skills to my daug Kodie. I hope you have as much fun as I did...

I, Sarah Elizabeth Stout, leave my lazy workout schedule to my close friend Sara Shelton. I also leave her the alcohol and parties. I leave my smile and jokes to Tora Wannamaker and Valerie Jay. I leave my 1:00am trips to Wal-Mart and studying in Centura's lobby along with ping-pong to Monique Gill. Never forget the fun! I leave the church encounters with Khira and Gilda! I love ya'll! To Travis I leave Tuesday night Bible Study (Refuge). I leave my driving skills to my bestfriend Monica Williams (who now goes to NC State). You will need them! I leave the weekends to Michelle Mason and Karon Richardson at Low Key! Too bad they closed it down! To Syreeta Wooten I leave my love for basketball and Saturdays at the games (we all know who we REALLY went to see). To all upcoming elementary education majors I leave behind Mrs. Fleming, Dr. Perry-Sheldon, and Dr. Brooks. I also wish you the best of luck! To everyone at Wesleyan, I leave stupid parking tickets. To My RA Jennifer, I leave a HUGE thank you! I will miss everyone at Wesleyan! (Well Almost). Good Luck and God Bless!

, Donna Elissa Lee, leave my post office job to whoever is loyal, honest, and hardworking. I leave my positive vibes to "na-na" while she continues getting better at Basketball. Last and not least, I leave my positiveness, vittiness, and wisdom to all of those who I have encountered.

I, Andre Frazier, leave words of encouragement to every student that struggles, you can make it, Love yourself, Be Yourself!!!

I, Ebonie Futrell, leave to all students the love of God that sustains us all. I leave my love and kindness towards all people to all students, faculty and staff. Keep God first.

Sisters of Distinction is an organization that was established during the '98 and '99 school year on the campus of NCWC. Sisters of Distinction seek to provide and promote within the Wesleyan community positive contributions toward the specific need and livelihoods of all females enrolled in the College. Members of this prestigious organization pride themselves in their effort to increase the level of academic, social, spiritual, and emotional support to members by promoting self-esteem, pride, academic excellence, professionalism in dress, deeds and respect for themselves, the College, and the community.

Yearbook the way it oughta be!

It oughta be today's story and tomorrow's history.

It oughta be a time capsule about this school year.

It oughta be a book about everyone.

It oughta have photos that tell great stories.

It oughta be more valuable in ten years.

It oughta be the MOST LOVED book on campus.

It oughta be fun.

It oughta make you feel seventeen forever.

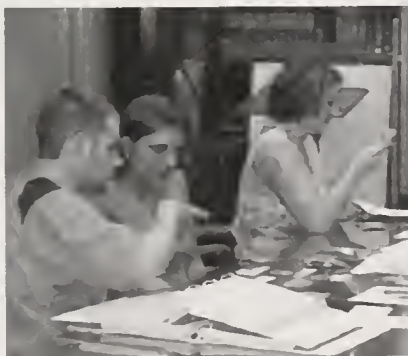

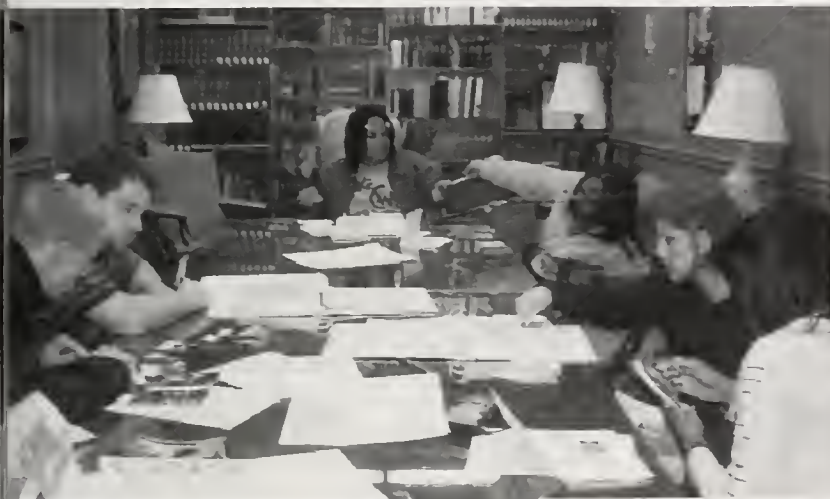

It oughta make you laugh (... and cry).

It oughta be something you can talk about with your college roommate.

You oughta join us next year and help it be the BEST EVER!!

Creative, committed and hardworking students needed.

THEATRE AWARDS

Best Wishes in your Retirement Dr. Lee Riggins!

Dear Lee, your service to the College, measured in time, was not lengthy. Measured by its significance, it was timeless. Without your leadership, we could not have done what we did to move the College forward at one of the most critical times in Wesleyan's history. As both friend and colleague, you were and are superb. Ave atque vale.

Ian Newbould
President of the College

Lee:

You came here during very tough times and did what had to be done. You will always be remembered as one of the key people who saved the College. As a member of your faculty, I appreciate your leadership and your care of the students. As your friend, I appreciate your encouragement, candor, subtle wit, and companionship on the links.

As you move on to new things, may your life be happy, filled with sunshine, verdant fairways, and plush greens, and may your ball always find the "sweet grass."

Thank you,

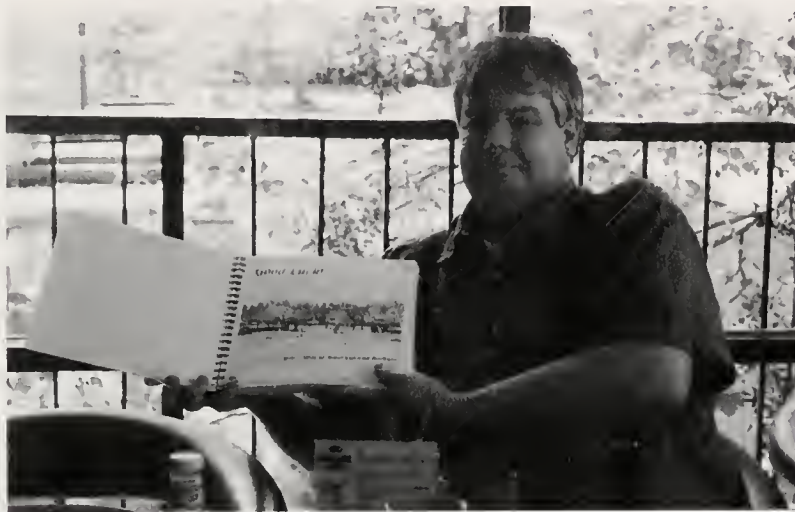

Michael Alewine

WELCOME ALUM

Tiffany Goodman

You've come a long way from "New Kids on the Block" to graduating from college. I can't believe that it seems like just yesterday you were driving your electric car on the boardwalk in Wildwood, stealing Krystle's milk bottle, taking your bathing suit off before jumping in the pool so you wouldn't get it wet, the nightmare of trying on your first bikini in Florida and figuring out how to put it on.

You and your outfit for Cape Christian School, your glasses, jumping on the 4 wheelers, watching you slalom in the Pocono Ski races, the bee stings at Woodward Gymnastic camp, and best of all your Barn parties - not 5 or 10 friends - the entire school, 100-200 friends.

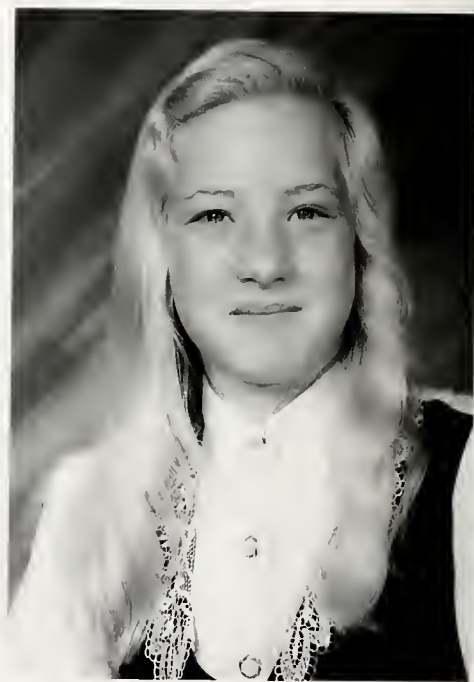

You made my life complete, looking into your tiny eyes as a newborn, to a beautiful young lady.

May the good Lord be with you down every road you roam. May sunshine and happiness surround you when you are far from home.

Congratulations! You make me proud to have a daughter like you.

Just remember ... 1, 2, 3 Happy Family!

Love, Daddy, Wendy, Krystle, Randy and Ryan
